September 2024

Greetings Beloved of God,

It is a pleasure to write to you again and to introduce you to the many epistles published by the Ministers, Apostles of the Most High God.

All scriptures are given by inspiration of the holyspirit, this months articles are:

- The Love of money is the root of all evil - Apostle Lloyd Denny
- The Last Support - Evangelist Robin Willow
- 10,000 Fishermen cannot be wrong.
- The invitation topic for the month of September is:
 - "It is life, but not as we know it"

For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth. Who the Lord foreknew he called, who he called, them he justified, and who he justified, them he glorified.

For this cause came he into the world, and for them we publish, for without us they would not be made perfect.

We thank our Apostles and Ministers for their many contributions and you also our readers for your support.

Thank you

Witness Darius

THE LOVE OF MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL

By Apostle Lloyd Denny

China is now the second largest economy in the world and is projected that within the next five years it will take over the number one spot from America.

China, a one party state with limited freedom, still communist in ideology and government has enjoyed double digit economic growth for more than a decade and even now with universal slow down, still has healthy economic growth year on year.

When I was in school in the 1970's the USSR and China were the largest communist blocs in the world. The oppressed of the world sought refuge in the USSR and China because they welcome them with open arms. People from Africa would go for schooling in USSR and were very well looked after. In fact a number of African freedom fighters were educated in the USSR.

China then was a closed society that didn't let many in or their people out. Those who came to the west were from Hong Kong, then still a British colony.

Both were relatively poor in comparison with western democracies. Both followed a command and control economic system; both had full employment even if that meant inventing jobs for people and both had low wages; the state provided housing and from birth to death welfare system.

There was a short time in the 1970's and early 1980's where more than half the world population were under a communist regime. This made the West afraid and did all it could to stop more countries becoming communist so anything that looked too left wing or socialist was a threat. This threat was met with attempts at destabilisation of the country, regime change and even assassination.

State sponsored terror is illegal and would bring a prime minister or president down if they are caught but still it happened because of the threat from communism.

In the end the USSR collapsed and the west breathed a collective sigh of relief. With the collapse came nationalism, western style democracy, market economies and soon afterwards the love of money.

With the love of money has come: prostitution, alcoholism, drug addiction, xenophobia and racism. The people of these former soviet bloc countries have not changed because of genetics or because they feel threatened by outsiders coming in they have changed because of a love of money.

The love of money makes us greedy, selfish, protectionist and evil. We build high walls around our homes not just to be safe from robbers but to keep others out. The rich entertain, they throw lavish parties and are quick to show off what they have so it's not really about keeping people out, but it is about keeping certain people out. Certain people might include: the poor, lower classes and certain races.

In the case of China, this still communist country, has the taste of money and like it. China has more billionaires than all other countries except the USA. China straddles Africa and the Caribbean with its money buying up resources, land and status in these countries yet more and more people are saying that Chinese people are not friendly and even racist.

THE LOVE OF MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL

China is allowing visitors into mainland China but people especially black people are complaining of racism.

Saudi Arabia and many other wealthy Arab countries are some of the most racist countries in the world and again this is due to the love of money. Before they discovered oil these very poor countries of desert dwellers and nomads were friendly to outsiders. Africans and Arabs got on well as equals but not now. Despite being near neighbours the Arabs treat the African as servants and slaves.

Have you noticed how unwilling these very wealthy Arab countries are to respond to global disasters. Millions have been forced out of Southern Sudan and Yemen but no help from Saudi Arabia. Yet a much poorer country like Kenya has allowed hundreds of thousands of people from Somalia into her country and even look after them.

Donald Trump won the presidency of America with a promise to build a very high wall to keep Mexicans out. Mexico a near neighbour, saddled with debt, corruption and prone to natural disasters is vilified as rapists, bandits and lazy. A caricature designed to make Americans afraid to lose what they believe they have.

America that became a nation through immigration. A people who fled Europe and elsewhere so they could practise their faith, make a new start and get away from persecution were at first very welcoming to all. Note the Statue of Liberty.

As soon as it became prosperous it became nasty. Settlers soon turn on their hosts the Indians, and in quick time almost wiped them out.

The love of money is indeed the root of all evil no wonder Jesus told the rich young ruler to give away his riches to the poor and then come follow him and it's easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for the rich to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Our platform is the world and our congregation the people.

The Lord's servant

10,000 FISHERMEN cannot be WRONG

By Apostle Witness Darius

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Let us sit down and discuss this that "I" God will remove the wrong and give you the right.

Now you can recuse yourself or you can trust God and accept the terms of your inheritance. There is a conflict of interest if you do not agree as you cannot serve God and sin, you must repent.

Before the foundation of the world God has reserved for you and those that love him an inheritance for those that love him. Repentance and baptism in the name of Jesus Christ and you shall receive the gift of the holyspirit - your inheritance explained, you must be born again!

Weighted upon the preponderance of credible evidence, John the Baptist said, I baptise you with water, but there is one standing here whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to loose and he shall baptise you with the holyspirit.

There is a scripture I want to share with you that amplifies the need to serve God in spirit and in Truth. It is better to be judged by the twelve Apostles than for your coffin to be carried out by the six, who have no need of repentance:

Acts 5:1-11 "But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him. And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things."

Jesus said, I call you to be fishers of men. 10,000 Fishermen cannot be wrong, Jesus said, go ye into all the world and preach the gospel and know this, I will be with you always even until the end of the world.

Acts 2 - "The day of Pentecost was after the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?

And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this? Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine. But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words: For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come:

And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

10,000 FISHERMEN cannot be WRONG

This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made the same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.”

Where is your strong reasoning, plead your cause, what is your complaint? if God be God then serve Him. you cannot serve two masters, to him who overcomes and continues to the end, will I give to eat from the Tree of Life - Amen!

THE LAST SUPPER & WEARING OF HATS

By Evangelist Robin Willow

Churches have gone astray, sometimes badly astray, because the teachers have accidentally or deliberately or negligently misunderstood the Scriptures of Truth. We are warned by Paul that particularly in the last days there would be false teachers, and people who flocked to them “having itching ears”! We are warned by John to test the spirits to see if they are of God. 1 John 4:1 - 3 “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world (and indeed many false teachers are active to this day, lining their own pockets at the expense of the Gospel.). Hereby know ye the Spirit of God; every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God. And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof she have heard that it should come; and even now is already in the World.”.

We should understand what this means! When doing teaching practice during my teacher training (yes, I am qualified to teach), the primary class teacher invited a Spiritist (aka Spiritualist medium) to talk to the class. I asked to talk to the class beforehand and told them about this test. When the Spiritist was talking I asked if I might ask a question. He agreed, and I asked him if the “Christ had come in the flesh”? He responded, “if you mean that Jesus is God, no!”. I merely looked at the class with an expression of well there you have it!

First let us consider the practice in some churches of making women wear hats or scarves. These churches can be very Godly and keen on complying with the scriptures. Then again, the Quakers (called 'friends') had the custom of men wearing hats. One of my ancestors was a Christian Quaker who became a Christian Methodist. He would wear a hat, and so he waited outside the Methodist gathering embarrassed because of his hat. (There are Quakers who are not Christians - what would George Fox say? - and Methodists who are not Christians - what would John Wesley say?).

Let us consider the Scriptures of Truth - 1 Corinthians 11 verse 4 - Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. But every woman that prayed or prophesyeth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head; for that is even alone as if she were shaven. For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn; but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of the man.

Now that seems clear enough, note it is an error to require women to wear hats, and to forbid men to wear hats. This is because the teachers have failed to read verse three, which explains what is meant by Paul. Notice also that he refers to women praying and prophesying, not just the men! What does Paul say in verse 3? But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man: and the head of Christ is God. So the man must uncover and reveal the Christ in his praying and prophesying, whereas the woman must cover and protect the privacy of the man in her praying and prophesying. Of course the head of the Christ, the Word of God made flesh, is God, so also I am the 'head' of my word (which can be recorded, but cannot be 'made flesh').

We should be able to see how we must “rightly understand the Scriptures” considering ideas in relation to the whole of Scripture, and not picking a piece of Scripture which seems to say what we want. This was what Wycliffe and Huss and Luther insisted of the Roman Catholic Church leaders, show us your teachings and our errors from the Scriptures of Truth. The authorities were unable to comply, so they killed such servants of God.

What then of the Last Supper? The Lord Jesus met with His disciples in an upper room before the Passover. As I have explained this was on the Tuesday, where the midweek Passover started on the Wednesday evening. (yes, there have been mid-week Passover festivals, and was one a few years ago). Before the meal he took the bread and broke it saying, this is my body broken for you. But not a bone of Jesus was broken according to prophecy and record. So, what was His purpose? Have you not understood that He did not create a religious meal, but He arranged that for every meal the disciples would remember His sacrifice. Weeks later, the Disciples were having their usual meal and broke bread! Bang! They remembered His words and His Sacrifice! So, should we every time we break bread, at every meal!!

At the end of the meal Jesus took the cup of wine, and blessed it saying, this is my blood of the New Testament, which is poured out for you. The Blood of Jesus, which landed on the mercy seat waiting in the cave below Golgotha, waiting as arranged below the cross on which he was executed, and made to be sin, SIN, for us, so that the Holy and Righteous God could pour all his Righteous anger on Jesus instead of on us. No wonder all the stars hid their lights and the sky went dark for three hours! Think about that, there was NO light, because all the stars including the sun went dark.

Again, what was His purpose? Every time the Disciples drank wine they remembered that His blood was shed for them, the Righteous pouring out His blood for the guilty! So, also should we remember His shed blood every day, at every meal!

We can be very certain that the Last Supper did not and does not turn into actual blood (the Trans-substantiation heresy) because the drinking of blood is forbidden to the early church and Christians. See Acts of the Apostles chapter 15:28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; that ye abstain from meats offered to idols (this refers to halal foods offered to 'allah' aka Baal), and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if you keep yourselves, ye shall do well.

Scriptures of Truth concerning the Last Supper - Matthew 26:20 - 30, Mark 14:16 - 26, Luke 22:13 - 38, John 12:20 - 50, 13:1 & 2, 3 - 17:26, 18:1 & 2. (John records a lot of extra detail).

There is one other matter, a significant error being promulgated in the churches. It is very visible in the NIV New International Version of the 'Bible' in John 3:16. Read the KJV "for God so loved the World (His creation) that He gave His only born (begotten) son, so that whoever believes in Him will not perish but have everlasting life. ". You might compare this with what Paul writes in his letter to the church in Galatia at chapter 4, about us also being sons of God, where the Greek of John 3:16 states that Jesus is the only born (begotten) Son of God, not the "one and only son of God" as claimed in the NIV. Now this NIV appears to be being promoted by ministers in the churches. How would you feel if certain church leaders were promoting the heretical and indeed anti-Christ JW (Russell) New World Translation ? When you study the NIV and the passages referring to the "Only Begotten" ref the KJV, you will find that most, but not all have been changed. You will find this very educational! How can Jesus be " the one and only son of God " if we become sons of God when we are born again, sons by adoption!?

John 15:22 - 25 hear what Jesus says, "If I had not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin (nothing to hide it). He that hateth me hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this comes to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, they hated me without a cause. But when the comforter is come, whom I shall send unto you from my Father, even the Spirit of Truth, which proceeded from the Father, He shall testify of me. And ye shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning (of His ministry).”.

Robin

IT'S Life, BUT NOT AS WE KNOW IT

By Apostle Witness Darius

What is this months epistle about? What does it mean when we say, “its life, but not as we know it?”

In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God and the Word was God. Those who the Lord Foreknew, them he Called, who he Called them he Justified, who he Justified, them he Glorified.

The writer said : Lord we don't know another life, other than the one we have lived on this earth, thank you God for choosing me: our life does not consist in what we eat, what we drink or even in what we wear, but in who we are to become, Children of the Most High God.

God gives life and he taketh it away; alone yet not alone for the spirit in man will return to God who gave it life.

Jesus said, I know who I have chosen and I know them by name. To the prophet Jeremiah the Lord said : Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. Therefore, Where the spirit of the Lord is there is liberty:

Revelations 21, Heaven explained: “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there. And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life."

In 1 Corinthians 15: 39-51 "Apostle Paul explains : All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

IT'S Life, BUT NOT AS WE KNOW IT

It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed."

The Word of God is precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little. He gave us nations, tribes and tongues, and God put colour into a mans skin. Whether they be dominions or kingdoms, God established them all.

King Solomon said: what profit is there if a man could exact all his labour under the sun, can he take it with him, one generation passeth away, and another generation ariseth, the sun goeth down, and hasten to his place where he arose. It is vanity of vanity, saith the preacher, vanity of vanity, all is vanity.

Events will come to pass to take us home to God, Apostle Paul said: Any man in Christ is a new creation, all things are past away, and behold all things have become brand new. For this cause came He into the world, to take back that which belongs to Him.

The monosyllabic words, are beautiful words, and wonderful words of life recited by Apostle Paul:

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

Faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received thespies with peace. And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets: Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions.

IT'S Life, BUT NOT AS WE KNOW IT

All were proven on the field of conflict, be ye an overcomer, for I the Lord have overcome this world. Jesus said, in my fathers house there are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you.

Righteousness exalts and entire nations, but sin is a reproach to all men. When the righteous are in rule the people will serve God. Heaven rejoices of one sinner that repents than over 99 just men that have no need of repentance. If the loss to you was a brother, a son or a husband, to you that loss is 100%, so it is with God.

Let's not forget why we are here, let's get the job done, share the greatest love story ever told, we are going home. When we consider all of this, how can we not love God back - your inheritance explained!

Thank you God, for the day when humanity met with divinity!
